

ANNUAL REPORT 2021-22

SUCCESS STARTED HERE

Dear Friends,

EVERY YEAR at Springer is significant as we provide an individualized academic program for students who struggle in traditional learning environments as well as educational programming critical to the growth of our region. Last year marked an important occasion: Springer celebrated our 50th anniversary serving the Greater Cincinnati community! The work of teaching students with learning differences such as dyslexia and ADHD and providing programming to parents and professionals who need to learn more about these topics is constant and ongoing. We remain relentless in our pursuit to reach everyone in the community who needs us.

Over the past 50 years Springer has grown, expanded and evolved to an amazing degree. During the past five decades we have had a number of significant benefactors. Some of those champions were honored at our 50th anniversary gala: Oliver Gale, Chuck Yeiser and Eric Yeiser, Daniel and Susan Pfau, Kate Lawrence, and John Schiff III and the Schiff family have led a legacy of philanthropy. This support – along with the support of thousands of others – has allowed our work to deliver the educational and community programming that our region desperately needs.

In the pages of this year's Annual Report we bring to light the impact that Springer has had on families throughout our history, which dates back to 1971. Those who believe in our vision for Springer's future generously contributed and pledged over $14,100,000 in our 50th anniversary year toward Springer's current Capital Campaign, Advancing Success. We have set a course for growth, expansion and continued evolution for the next 50 years and your support of that vision means so much to us. We thank you for being part of our community and remaining dedicated to Springer!

Sincerely,

Matt Gockerman
President, Board of Trustees

Brett Marcoux
President

Here we honor the completion of Springer School and Center's fiftieth anniversary year. Photos nostalgically conjure the decades with their telltale styles. Upon closer look, the images quietly divulge many of the core elements from the past that remain at the heart of Springer today.

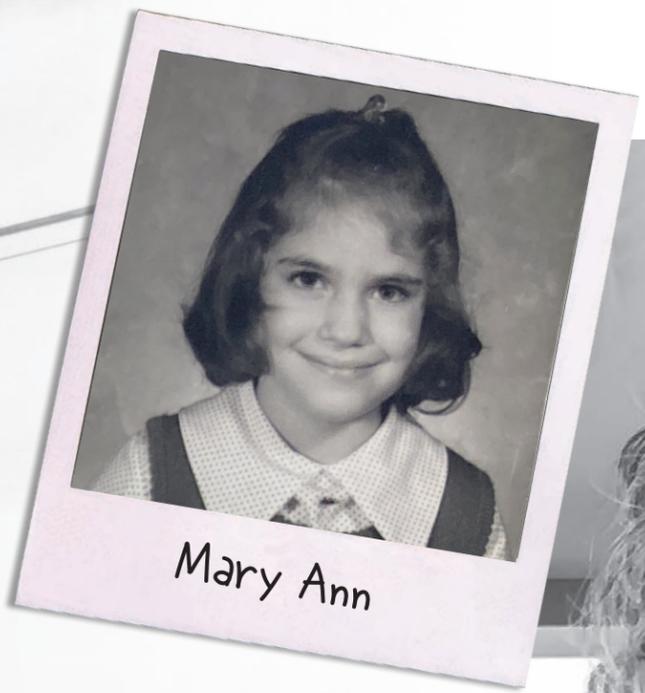

Fundamental today as in 1971, is the compassion and conviction born of Springer's steadfast mission: Empower students with learning disabilities to lead successful lives.

We are inspired by the children and families we serve and our core belief in the potential of each of them to achieve success. Their success is our success, and through your partnership it is paid forward into future generations who will also become empowered to attain their dreams.

Fifty years ago, success started here as it does today.

In our classrooms and through outreach programs, Springer's impact is felt deeply within the lives of families. Through our Center, education professionals obtain the knowledge to better serve in their own communities. In the pages ahead we relay the words of our students underscoring the significance of the Springer experience. We invite you to look and see the ways Springer has evolved and the ways Springer has remained wonderfully the same.

FUNDAMENTAL TODAY AS IN 1971, IS THE COMPASSION AND
CONVICTION BORN OF SPRINGER'S
STEADFAST MISSION:
EMPOWER STUDENTS WITH LEARNING DISABILITIES TO LEAD SUCCESSFUL LIVES.

Doug Fassler

I came to Springer my fifth grade year. Prior to Springer, my self esteem was at an all time low. During my years at Springer, my attitude, self esteem, and confidence improved immensely. I liked to go to school which I never thought I would. I also discovered that I had the abilities to be a good student. -Doug Fassler '83

Mrs. Keegan's Class

I was told I would never be able to go to college or become something. After going to Springer I quickly learned that wasn't the case, I could and would do anything I put my mind to.”

Springer encouraged me to focus on the strengths I possess rather than dwelling on my learning difference. Springer also taught me how to advocate for myself and helped me not be afraid to ask for assistance when I didn't understand the instructions for an assignment.

-Rosalyn Johnson, Ed.D., LMHC, CCTP, NCC, '01

Springer has given me the resources to take on life's every day challenges with a confidence my younger self couldn't possibly imagine. For this, I will be forever grateful for time at Springer. ”
