Title: Intervention Specialist

Anticipated start date: August 1, 2024

About Springer

Springer School and Center is a caring community supporting students diagnosed with learning disabilities and their families. Springer serves the community through four pillars: Springer Lower School and Middle School (grades 1-8), Springer High School (grades 9-10), Springer Diagnostic Center, and Springer Learning Center. Springer faculty and staff embrace the organization's mission and incorporate the core values of student growth/development, staff expertise/development, partnership, communication, and stability in their daily work.

Position Summary

Lower School Teachers are responsible for leading the growth and development of Springer students. Teachers are responsible for planning, executing, and differentiating instruction daily. In classrooms of, typically, 12 students or fewer, teachers are supported by an instructional assistant and lead large and small group instruction. Teachers collaborate with members of their respective teams, supporting therapists, staff, and school leadership to consistently make decisions in the best interests of students.

Job Goals

- Design, implement, and assess high-quality differentiated instruction for students.
- Establish a thorough understanding of each child's strengths and needs.
- Foster and maintain a safe and accepting learning environment.
- Develop meaningful relationships with students, families, and colleagues.
- Embrace a team approach to supporting student learning.
- Contribute to the health and well-being of the broader Springer community.

Preferred Qualifications

- Bachelor's degree or Master's degree in Special Education.
- Active Intervention Specialist teaching license.
- Three or more years teaching students diagnosed with learning disabilities.
- Demonstrated subject-area expertise.
- Experience incorporating educational technology in a classroom setting.

Key Characteristics: Smart, dependable, personable and efficient with technology
