

Summer Reading 2025

Summer is the perfect time to dive into a great new book! Below is a selection of books and series that are popular among our incoming 1st-3rd grade students, organized by reading level. Parents can take time to make reading fun by organizing a reading challenge or reading “camp out” (with a fort and snacks!), or encouraging reading in fun new places like in a hammock or under a tree. Local libraries will often organize summer programs with prizes for reading as well!
