Title: Lead Middle School Social Studies Teacher
Anticipated start date: August 3, 2026

About our Organization

Springer School and Center is a caring community dedicated to supporting students diagnosed with learning disabilities and their families. Springer encompasses a school serving students in Grades 1-11 as well as a center for providing education about learning disabilities to members of the broader community. Springer faculty and staff embrace the organization's mission and incorporate the core values of student growth/development, staff expertise/development, partnership, communication, and stability in their daily work.

Position Summary

Springer faculty members are responsible for leading the growth and development of Springer students. Faculty members plan, execute and differentiate instruction so that students learn content as well as learning strategies. Typically in classrooms of 15 students or less, Middle School faculty members lead large and small group instruction for students in Grades 6-8 and are supported by an Instructional Assistant. Faculty members collaborate with members of their respective teams, supporting therapists, staff, and administrators to consistently make decisions in the best interests of students.

Job Goals

- Design, implement, and assess high-quality differentiated instruction for students.
- Establish a thorough understanding of each child's strengths and needs.
- Foster and maintain a safe and accepting learning environment.
- Develop meaningful relationships with students, families, and colleagues.
- Embrace a team approach to supporting student learning.
- Contribute to the health and well-being of the broader Springer community.

Preferred Qualifications

- Bachelor's degree or Master's degree in Special Education.
- Bachelor's degree in middle school education with a concentration in Social Studies
- Active Intervention Specialist teaching license.
- Three or more years teaching students diagnosed with learning disabilities.
- Demonstrated subject-area expertise.
- Experience incorporating educational technology in a classroom setting.

Terms of Employment: Full-time, 10 months per year (school year).

How to Apply

Qualified applicants should email a resume, cover letter and employment application (found on the Springer employment page) to employment@springer-ld.org. The subject line of that email should reflect the position title.

Springer School and Center considers all applicants for all positions without regard to race, religion, gender, sexual orientation, national origin, age, disability, marital or veteran status, or any other legally protected status.
